Library Bestpath Questions

QUESTION: Will students still have access to the library on the WBC/CBS campus?

ANSWER: Yes, the library is still open and located in the same place.

QUESTION: What are the library hours?

ANSWER: For up-to-date information regarding the library hours of operation, please refer to the library webpage at: www.bible.edu/Library/Home

QUESTION: Will students still have their personal library account?

ANSWER: Yes. Until further notice, you will access holdings and take out books the same way you did before. You will also be able to access LBC's various databases.

QUESTION: Will my student ID change?

ANSWER: Yes, all students will be given a LBC student ID. The ID will allow you to access the LBC library, however, it will not work in the WBC/CBS library.

QUESTION: How will I take out books from the WBC/CBS library?

ANSWER: All the same procedures are in place as in the past, including taking out books and placing holds on books.

QUESTION: Will there still be access to EBSCO and other research databases?

ANSWER: Yes, and more. The only difference is that you will be accessing EBSCO through the LBC library website. The LBC library holds more than 296,000 items, including over 104,000 electronic books. Each year, several thousand new books are added to the collection. The library has more than 43,000 periodical titles in electronic and paper formats. Students may search over 98 electronic databases in the various subjects taught at LBC.

QUESTION: Who do I contact with questions or concerns?

ANSWER: Please call (240-387-1231) or email Sue Kolodziejski at skolodziejski@bible.edu or skolodziejski@lbc.edu.