

SUMMER 2010 ONLINE COURSE SCHEDULE

College online courses begin periodically. Call your Admissions Counselor or the Registrar's Office for more information:

- ⇒ Admissions Counselor 301-552-1400, ext. 1212
- ⇒ Registrar's Office 301-552-1400, ext. 1264

Sessions:

- Summer One: May 13 - July 23
- Summer Two (Extended): June 1 - September 1
- Summer Three: June 17 - August 27
- Summer Four: July 1 - September 9

Course Offerings:

Biblical/Foundational Studies

BIB 201 The Gospels & Acts

Professor Dave Dillion

FST 101 Christian Life & Witness

Professor Dave Dillion

Developmental Courses*

ENG 100 Introduction to College English

Dr. Carol Eades

MAT 032 Basic Math II

Professor Ruth Pailey

**These courses do not meet gen. ed. requirements and do not count toward a degree.*

General Education

ENG 121 English Composition I

Dr. Carol Eades

ENG 122 English Composition II

Dr. Carol Eades

HIS 203 Survey of World History

Dr. Sharon Landers

LIT 221 British Literature

Dr. Carol Eades

LIT 241 Literature & the Christian Imagination

Dr. Carol Eades

MAT 231 Math for the Liberal Arts

Professor Ruth Pailey

MUS 101 Music Appreciation

Professor Susan Huckaby

SOC 221 Introduction to Sociology

Dr. Thomas Moore

Professional Electives

CHM 311 Effective Small Group Ministry

Professor Dave Dillion

ICS 221 History of Cross-Cultural Outreach (Missions)

Professor Dave Dillion

ICS 422 Current Trends & Political Ideologies

Dr. Richard Smith

More Information on Online Courses:

- ⇒ The tuition cost for online courses is the same as for face-to-face courses.
- ⇒ PLEASE NOTE: There is a $84.00 technology fee for online courses (included at registration) which does not apply to face-to-face courses.
- ⇒ Any student who has been accepted (through the admissions process) and is in good standing may register for online courses.
- ⇒ All communication will take place via email and online discussion boards. Students will need only Microsoft Office software and the ability to log onto the internet.